WHEREAS, many adults who do not replace their missing teeth suffer poor self-esteem, premature aging, poor diet, loss of function and social embarrassment, but by utilizing dental implants, fixed bridgework, removable partial dentures and complete dentures, a prosthodontists' expertise can change a smile and a life; and

WHEREAS, prosthodontists undergo three years of additional training after dental school in the prevention and treatment of tooth loss; and

WHEREAS, prosthodontists have a highly skilled understanding of the dynamics of a smile, the preservation of a healthy mouth and the creation of tooth replacements; and

WHEREAS, prosthodontists also maintain a strong commitment to the dental health care needs of older patients, individuals with congenital anomalies, and those who have been affected by oral cancer, with many providing pro bono care to their local communities; and

WHEREAS, prosthodontists are represented by the American College of Prosthodontists, an educational and scientific association founded in 1970 to represent the needs and interests of prosthodontists within organized dentistry, and to the public, by providing a means for stimulating awareness and interest in the field of prosthodontics; and

WHEREAS, the American College of Prosthodontists' mission is to provide the highest quality of patient care, work closely with other dental professionals to provide the most comprehensive and effective treatments, and improve the quality of patients' lives; and

WHEREAS, in 2010, the American College of Prosthodontists, incorporated in Illinois and headquartered in Chicago, and its 3,200 members internationally will celebrate the organization's 40th anniversary;

THEREFORE, I, Pat Quinn, Governor of the State of Illinois, do hereby proclaim March 7-13, 2010 as NATIONAL PROSTHODONTICS AWARENESS WEEK in Illinois, to raise public awareness of the critical importance of mouth health and how to best care for missing teeth, and in recognition of the important services that prosthodontists provide.
