

Prosthodontic Review Course

NEW YORK CITY
SEPT. 21-22, 2019

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF PROSTHODONTISTS
Your smile. Our specialty.®

The specialty that never rests is coming to the city that never sleeps.

This two-day course is designed to cover the entire spectrum of contemporary prosthodontics. From an update on core concepts in fixed, removable, and implant prosthodontics to an overview of the latest developments in dental materials, digital workflows, and more, this all-new program will give you a concise and comprehensive look at current trends.

Whether you are a seasoned practitioner or getting ready to start your career, the Prosthodontic Review Course will provide a fresh take on the fundamentals and an informed perspective on the innovations that are driving the specialty forward.

At the conclusion of this course, participants should be able to:

- Recognize and apply principles of diagnosis, planning, and treatment for completely edentulous, partially edentulous, and dentate patients.
- Discuss traditional methods and assess the evidence behind new ideas and approaches.
- Review current clinical applications and future directions of dental materials and digital technology in patient care.

Target Audience

Prosthodontists, residents, and dental professionals who collaborate with prosthodontists in multidisciplinary teams.

It is the responsibility of each participant to verify the requirements of his/her state licensing board(s) and submit the form provided by the ACP to receive credit.

Cancellation Policy, Program Disclaimer & Code of Conduct

All cancellations are subject to a $50 processing fee. Full refunds for registration minus the $50 processing fee will be given only if written notice of cancellation is received 30 days prior to the course. A 50% refund will be given if written notice is after 30 days, up until one week prior to the course. No refunds will be given within one week prior to a course; therefore "no shows" will not be eligible for a refund. Notice of cancellation should be made in writing and sent to the ACP by email to education@prosthodontics.org or fax to (312) 573-1257.

All programs and events are subject to change and/or cancellation because of scheduling conflicts, low registration, and/or circumstances beyond the control of the ACP. The ACP is not responsible for travel expenses or penalties under any circumstances. In the event of a cancellation by the ACP, all registrants will receive a full refund of any registration fees paid. By attending the course, attendees agree to allow photographing, videotaping, audio-taping, or webcasting and for their image to be used by the ACP in association publications, on the ACP's website, and in marketing and promotional materials.

The ACP is dedicated to providing a safe, harassment-free, and inclusive meeting experience for all participants. Participants in ACP meetings include members, registrants, guests, staff, speakers, sponsors, exhibitors, and Board members. The ACP does not tolerate harassment of meeting participants in any form. Any violations will be taken seriously and handled in accordance with the ACP's code of conduct policy, which is posted at Prosthodontics.org.
