Such indemnification of Show Management by Exhibitor shall be effective unless such damage or injury may result from the sole negligence, gross negligence, or willful misconduct of Show Management. Exhibitor covenants and agrees that in case Show Management shall be made a party to any litigation commenced by or against Exhibitor or relating to this lease or the Premises leased hereunder, then Exhibitor shall and will pay all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees and court costs, incurred by or imposed upon Show Management by virtue of any such litigation. UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT POLICY: It is the policy of the American College of Prosthodontists [ACP] that any supervisor, employee, officer, Director, Annual Session participant, or vendor should be able to work in an atmosphere free from all forms of discrimination, including sexual and other forms of unlawful harassment. Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

The ACP prohibits all unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances or propositions, verbal abuse of a sexual nature, subtle pressure or requests for sexual activities, unnecessary touching of an individual, graphic verbal commentaries about an individual's body, sexually degrading words used to describe an individual, display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures, sexually explicit or offensive jokes, and physical assault. Similarly, no supervisor, employee, officer, Director, Annual Session participant, or vendor shall promise, imply, or grant any preferential treatment in connection with another individual engaging in sexual conduct. Each member of the ACP's management and leadership is responsible for creating an atmosphere free of discrimination and harassment, sexual or otherwise. Further, every individual is responsible for respecting the rights of other individuals. It is the responsibility of each individual to report incidents of discrimination and harassment. Any individual who feels he or she is a victim of discrimination or harassment by any supervisor, management official, officer, Director, other employee, Annual Session participant or vendor (or who otherwise believes that discrimination or harassment is occurring) should bring the matter to the immediate attention of his or her supervisor so that an investigation can be conducted. If that would prove to be uncomfortable, any individual may directly contact any other member of management, the ACP's Executive Director, or any officer of the ACP. All allegations of discrimination and/or harassment will be promptly investigated in as confidential a manner as possible, and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted. The ACP will retain confidential documentation of all allegations and investigations.

Individuals are encouraged to come forward and utilize the procedures described above, and retaliation against any individual for exercising any rights under this policy is strictly prohibited. Any supervisor, employee, officer, Director, Annual Session participant, or vendor who is determined, after an investigation, to have engaged in discrimination and/or unlawful harassment shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge or expulsion where warranted.
