American College of Prosthodontists Announces Six Winners of the 2014 Table Clinics

CHICAGO — The American College of Prosthodontists (ACP) recognized three postdoctoral and three predoctoral Prosthodontist resident members for their outstanding and substantial table clinic posters presented during the 44th Annual Session of the ACP held in New Orleans from Nov. 5-8, 2014. These individuals were selected from more than 100 entrants in the event.

The ACP is proud to announce the following six winners of its 2014 Table Clinics:

Graduate Student / Resident Competition

1. Dr. Konstantinos Vazouras, University of Connecticut Health Center
2. Dr. Natalie Baker, University of Illinois, Chicago
3. Dr. Jyme Charette, University of Louisville, Kentucky

Predoctoral Student Competition

1. Ms. Sohyun Park, Harvard University
2. Mr. Kale McMillan, New York University
3. Mr. Dane McMillan, New York University

ACP member Caroline T. Nguyen, D.M.D., served as chair of the competition.

A table clinic can be a presentation of research results, clinical outcomes, laboratory techniques, or topics of general interest to ACP members and guests. It is intended to highlight the scholarly activity of the residents and dental students.

Prosthodontists are specialized dentists with advanced training in oral health issues, who are committed to improving patient outcomes. From implants, crowns, veneers and tooth whitening, to full-mouth reconstruction, Prosthodontists specialize in digital dentistry and CAD/CAM solutions.

The ACP is the only Prosthodontic specialty organization whose membership is based solely on education credentials. ACP members must be in or have completed an ADA-accredited advanced education program in Prosthodontics.
