

48TH ANNUAL SESSION
OCT 31-NOV 3 • BALTIMORE

Baltimore Guide

from Dr. Carl Driscoll, ACP Fellow

Welcome to Baltimore. Here are some great places to dine in Baltimore during the ACP Annual Session - all within walking distance.

- Dr. Carl Driscoll

Harbor East 9, where the meeting is:

- Best restaurant in Maryland is Charleston. James Beard winner chef is Cindy Wolf. High-end meal at a high end price. Worth the experience but book ahead.
- Oceanaire Seafood - upscale choice for seafood and steaks.
- Cinghiale - Lively wine bar & formal restaurant serving a daily menu of upscale Italian cuisine in stylish digs.

Little Italy, a three minute walk to old style Italian neighborhood with great inexpensive food and lots of stoops (welcome to Baltimore, Hon).

- Amicci's - my favorite because of their "pane rotunda" - a mound of bread covered with an incredibly delicious creamy garlic shrimp sauce. Great for sharing as an appetizer.
- Vaccaro's - the place to get fresh made cannoli's, cookies, and other Italian treats.

Inner Harbor

- For meat lovers, you have Ruth's Chris, Flemings, Capital Grille, and Morton's. Take your pick for incredible beef.
- For the breakfast lovers:
 - Blue Moon Café (short taxi ride) - for a unique breakfast experience, as seen on Diners, Drive-ins, and Dives. Very small but worth the wait.
 - Miss Shirley's Café - down home American breakfasts and more.
