ACP Resident and New Prosthodontist Mentoring Center

Sponsored by

Carl F. Driscoll, DMD, FACP currently serves as a Professor at the University of Maryland Dental School and was the Director of the Prosthodontic Residency for 21 years. He also served in the same capacity at Walter Reed Army Medical Center for three years prior to being at Maryland. Dr. Driscoll retired from the U.S. Army after twenty years of service. Dr. Driscoll received many awards during his military service including the Legion of Merit, specialty “A” designator, Order of Military Merit, Expert Field Medical Badge, and was the first U.S. Army dentist to earn the German Sports Badge (Gold). He is one of the very few military dentists to be promoted to Colonel from Below the Zone.

Dr. Driscoll is a Diplomate of the American Board of Prosthodontics and a Fellow of the American College of Prosthodontists (ACP) and the Academy of Prosthodontics. Dr. Driscoll has served as President of the American Academy of Fixed Prosthodontics, President of the American Board of Prosthodontics, and as President of the ACP. He has been honored with many awards including the ACP’s Educator of the Year in 2018 and will receive the General Bill B Lefler Federal Service Award at the annual meeting this year. Dr. Driscoll has given over 500 presentations nationally and internationally and has published extensively. He co-authored two textbooks: Clinical Applications of Digital Dental Technology with Dr. Radi Masri and Treating the Complete Denture Patient with William Glenn Golden. His residents have won many research grants and awards and have been very successful in Board Examinations. In addition to his teaching commitments, Dr. Driscoll is in private practice in Bethesda, MD with his wife, Dr. Sarit Kaplan.
