The American College of Prosthodontists Installs Dr. Graziano D. Giglio as Representative for the ACP Council for the American Board of Prosthodontics

CHICAGO — The American College of Prosthodontists (ACP) has installed Graziano D. Giglio, DDS, FACP, as its private practice representative on the ACP Council for the American Board of Prosthodontics (ABP). Dr. Giglio was sworn in during the 44th Annual Session of the ACP held in New Orleans from Nov. 5-8, 2014.

Based in New York, Dr. Giglio is an accomplished clinician who continues to make positive strides within the prosthodontic specialty. In addition to his ACP role, Dr. Giglio serves on the board and committees of many dental academies and organizations, including the American College of Dentists, the Greater New York Academy of Dentistry, and the Northeastern Gnathological Society. Dr. Giglio is a clinical associate professor and director of fixed Prosthodontics at the Jonathan and Maxine Ferencz Advanced Education Program in Prosthodontics at New York University College of Dentistry.

"I'm honored to have been elected by my peers as dentistry is rapidly advancing," Dr. Giglio said. "As a Prosthodontist, I know that new technologies arising from digital dentistry take the way we care for patients to a new level that improves how we help patients and what we can achieve as a final treatment result – a beautiful smile, optimal oral health, and longer lasting, better fitting, more comfortable, and natural looking teeth that function well."

Prosthodontists are specialized dentists with advanced training in oral health issues, who are committed to improving patient outcomes. From implants, crowns, veneers and tooth whitening, to full-mouth reconstruction, Prosthodontists specialize in digital dentistry and CAD/CAM solutions.

The ACP is the only Prosthodontic specialty organization whose membership is based solely on education credentials. ACP members must be in or have completed an ADA-accredited advanced education program in Prosthodontics.
