

John Paul McCasland DDS

November 29, 1930 - August 17, 2017

Born in Brownwood, TX

Resided in Warrenton, VA

Dr. John Paul McCasland, DDS, 86, formerly of Richmond, VA died peacefully with family by his side on August 17, 2017 in Warrenton, VA.

Born in Brownwood, Texas on November 29, 1930, he was the son of Paul A. and Bettie Faye McCasland.

Dr. McCasland graduated from Howard Payne University and Baylor University Dental School. In 1976, he retired from the U.S. Army as a Colonel, having served as the Chief of Removable Prosthodontics at Walter Reed Army Medical Center. After retiring from the Army, he joined the Medical College of Virginia as an Associate Professor where he worked until he retired. Dr. McCasland also worked in private practice with his good friend, Bill Callery, and retired again at age 80.

John had a zest for and love of life. He was a life-long golfer and outdoorsman. For many years he enjoyed fishing trips on his boat in the Chesapeake Bay and family vacations at Topsail, NC.

He is survived by two daughters, Elizabeth Schlenker and her husband John; and Laura Walters and her husband, Tim; a sister, Marilyn White; six grandchildren, Daniel Schlenker and his wife Mary, Katie and Lauren Schlenker, and Thomas, Olivia and Christian Walters. He was preceded in death by a brother, Carroll McCasland.