Dr. Joseph B. Breitman Honored with Private Practice Award for Eastern Region 2 by the American College of Prosthodontists

CHICAGO — Joseph B. Breitman, DMD, MS, FACP, has been awarded the private practice award for Eastern region 2 by the American College of Prosthodontists (ACP). Dr. Breitman received his award during the 44th Annual Session of the ACP held in New Orleans from Nov. 5-8, 2014.

A specialist based in Philadelphia, Dr. Breitman is an esteemed academic and an innovative Prosthodontist who is committed to providing the best care for his patients.

“He truly exemplified an excellent balance of compassion, energy and dental expertise, resulting in an excellent outcome that allowed me to smile again,” said Sherry Feldman, a patient of Dr. Breitman.

Dr. Breitman’s expertise goes beyond his patients, to personally helping fellow dental professionals. “Joe has long been known as the ‘dentists’ dentist’-- an accomplishment few in our profession achieve,” said board-certified pediatric dentist David Bresler, DDS.

Created in 2013, the Private Practice Award may be given annually to up to five individual Prosthodontists (one per ACP Region). These individuals must have made outstanding contributions to the advancement of the Prosthodontic specialty and the role that the Prosthodontist in private practice plays in advancing the patient’s quality of life.

Prosthodontists are specialized dentists with advanced training in oral health issues, who are committed to improving patient outcomes. From implants, crowns, veneers and tooth whitening, to full-mouth reconstruction, Prosthodontists specialize in digital dentistry and CAD/CAM solutions
