Dr. Paul E. Scruggs Installed as Membership Director Eastern Region 2 for the American College of Prosthodontists

CHICAGO — Paul E. Scruggs, DDS, has been re-elected as membership director Eastern region 2 to the board of directors of the American College of Prosthodontists (ACP). Dr. Scruggs was sworn in at the Annual Awards & Presidents Dinner during the 44th Annual Session of the American College of Prosthodontists held in New Orleans from Nov. 5-8, 2014.

Based out of Raleigh, N.C., Dr. Scruggs has been ACP's membership director of Eastern Region 2 since 2012. His dedication to the field of Prosthodontics is admirable and undeterred, spanning a career from the military to 28 years in private practice. Dr. Scruggs is past President of the Raleigh/Wake County Dental Society and was president of the Southeastern Academy of Prosthodontics in 2005. He also owns and manages an in-house laboratory and conducts full- and half-day CE programs on various implant subjects. "It's a great time to be a Prosthodontist," Dr. Scruggs said.

"I am thrilled to serve a second term on the ACP Board of Directors for the ACP," Dr. Scruggs said.

Prosthodontists are specialized dentists with advanced training in oral health issues, who are committed to improving patient outcomes. From implants, crowns, veneers and tooth whitening, to full-mouth reconstruction, Prosthodontists specialize in digital dentistry and CAD/CAM solutions.

The ACP is the only Prosthodontic specialty organization whose membership is based solely on education credentials. ACP members must be in or have completed an ADA-accredited advanced education program in Prosthodontics.
