

John J. Sharry Prosthodontic Research Competition Submission Guidelines

This educational activity is supported by an educational grant from GlaxoSmithKline

The John J. Sharry Prosthodontic Research Competition, sponsored by the ACP Education Foundation, will be held during the ACP Annual Session at the JW Marriott in Austin on Nov. 4, 2022. The competition is held to stimulate and acknowledge original research in prosthodontics. The ACP Research Committee strongly encourages all eligible individuals to participate in this program.

ELIGIBILITY

Individuals are eligible if they are currently enrolled in a postdoctoral prosthodontic program accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation (CODA) or have completed such a program in the last three (3) years and are an Active Member, Fellow, or Resident Member, in good standing, of the American College of Prosthodontists. Manuscripts must not have been previously accepted for publication (except for Journal of Prosthodontics (JOP) acceptance) and are eligible for publication in the JOP.

The John Sharry Research Award is a competition between prosthodontic residents and recent program graduates. Submissions must be original, well-planned, and carefully executed by the competitor.

Submissions should consist of research completed during or in conjunction with the applicant's CODA-accredited prosthodontic residency program.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Abstracts must be submitted ELECTRONICALLY (email file attachment) by the applicant to the ACP Education Foundation at areshan@prosthodontics.org by June 13, 2022.

ABSTRACT PARAMETERS

- 1) Abstracts must have a structured form that includes objectives, methods, results, and conclusions.
- 2) Abstracts are limited to a maximum of 350 words. Please verify word number using "Word Count" under the tools section of Word or other word processing program and state the word number at the bottom of the abstract.
- 3) The abstract must be accompanied by an electronic letter of support from the research mentor (sent as a separate file attachment with the email submission). Support letter must include: a breakdown of the percent effort by the student, research mentor, other project collaborators, and the source of funding. The letter must also include a statement guaranteeing that the manuscript will be submitted for publication in the JOP if the project is

- selected as a finalist (this must be done prior to the oral presentation during the Annual Session).
- 4) The abstract must also be accompanied by the completed application supplement which can be found on pages 4-5 of these guidelines.
  - 5) Please do not identify the institution, the student, or mentor within the text of the abstract.

ABSTRACT/MANUSCRIPT REVIEW PROCESS

- 1) All submitted abstracts will be reviewed, and six finalists will be selected no later than July 22, 2022. Please note that the six finalists are not eligible to present their research in both the Sharry and Poster Competition. Sharry applicants that are not selected as finalists can participate in the Poster Competition.

The six finalists will be required to:

- a) Submit complete PDF-formatted manuscripts to the ACP Education Foundation at areshan@prosthodontics.org no later than August 31, 2022.

NOTE: Manuscripts must follow the page limit (10-page maximum), reference formatting, and other constraints for standard submissions to the JOP. Manuscripts that do not follow these guidelines will be returned without review.

- b) If not submitted already, submit a final copy of the manuscript to the JOP by October 1, 2022. Finalists must forward the JOP manuscript submission number to areshan@prosthodontics.org.
  - c) Submit a final copy of your PowerPoint presentation to areshan@prosthodontics.org no later than Oct. 15, 2022.
- 2) The ACP Research Committee will review the manuscripts and the six finalists will compete at the ACP Annual Session by giving an oral presentation, which will be graded by the ACP Research Committee. The full manuscripts will be scored, and those scores will be used in the final scoring formula. The scoring formula and percent distribution that will determine the three winners can be found below:

50% for submitted manuscript

50% for oral presentation (30% Q&A and 20% Style*)

*Style is defined as:

- 1) Following Guidelines of Presentation Length
- 2) Clarity of Presentation
- 3) Quality of Slides
- 4) Logical Flow (Presentation of Review Process Factors 1-6 found below)
- 5) Presentation Skills

FACTORS THAT WILL BE CONSIDERED THROUGHOUT THE REVIEW PROCESS

- 1) Purpose/Hypothesis-driven investigation
- 2) Study design/methodology
- 3) Innovation
- 4) Appropriate statistical analyses
- 5) Basic science or clinical relevance of the study
- 6) Personal contribution to research project

ONSITE FINAL PRESENTATIONS

The six finalists will present live at the 2022 Annual Session on Friday, Nov. 4. Each finalist will be given 15 minutes to present to the Research Committee and audience, followed by 5 minutes of Q&A (from Research Committee Only).

Final placement will be determined by the composite score of the manuscript and presentation.

Each finalist will receive: one-night hotel stay up to $300 and U.S. domestic airfare (booked 30 days in advance) up to $600. Cash awards of $1250 for 1st place, $750 for 2nd place, and $500 for 3rd place will be presented to the finalists at the Resident & New Prosthodontist Reception (checks may be mailed following the meeting).

APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED ELECTRONICALLY IN PDF FORMAT TO THE ACPEF AT
areshan@prosthodontics.org by June 13, 2022
