Scottsdale, AZ Prosthodontist Recognized for Outreach to the Dental Community

Dr. Farzam Maleki honored by the American College of Prosthodontists

CHICAGO – Farzam Maleki, BDS, MS, FACP, was honored with the Private Practice Prosthodontist Award for the Rockies/Plains Region of the American College of Prosthodontists (ACP). This award recognizes extraordinary collegiality, outreach and community service, highlighting the role a prosthodontist plays in advancing the quality of life for patients in their community.

“When you are busy working, the last thing on your mind is an award of any kind,” said Dr. Maleki. “Being recognized in this way makes me realize how fortunate I am to be doing what I love, and to be part of this great prosthodontic community.”

Dr. Maleki has conducted many hours of continuing education for dental providers and auxiliaries, as part of his commitment to partner with other dental specialties to get the best result for each patient. He is a Diplomate of the American Board of Prosthodontics and a Fellow of the ACP, previously leading the organization’s Arizona chapter.

“Dr. Maleki is highly respected among prosthodontist peers as well as within the dental community,” said ACP Immediate Past President Dr. Robert M. Taft.

After graduating from King’s College School of Dental Surgery, University of London Dr. Maleki was in general practice for five years. He then pursued his graduate degree from the University of Minnesota, where he received his specialty certificate in prosthodontics and his Master of Science degree. Dr. Maleki then served as an attending specialist at Northwestern Memorial Hospital in Chicago for several years, before moving to Scottsdale, AZ and starting his practice from scratch in 2002.

About Prosthodontists

A prosthodontist is a dental specialist who focuses on the restoration and replacement of missing teeth and other oral or facial issues. Prosthodontists specialize in helping patients with implants, dentures and veneers, all the way to full mouth and jaw reconstructions.

About the ACP

The American College of Prosthodontists (ACP) is the only ADA recognized organization for the specialty of prosthodontics. Founded in 1970, the ACP is dedicated to advancing the art and science of prosthodontics and promoting the specialty to the public and dental professionals.
